A Day Out in

Carlisle by bus

Start your day in Carlisle city centre, admiring the Cathedral and enjoying breakfast in one of the nearby cafes. From the bus station, hop on the 64 Service to Houghton Hall Garden Centre, a short 16 minutes away. Enjoy a wander round the extensive garden centre, spread over three levels, and make sure to visit the World in Miniature Museum and craft shop on the basement level.

After enjoying a bite to eat in the garden centre restaurant, head back to Carlisle city centre and visit the fascinating Carlisle Castle, one of the most besieged castles in England which guarded the wild western end of the Anglo-Scottish border for hundreds of years.

After exploring the Castle, head to the bus station and hop on the 104 Service to Penrith in the afternoon. This scenic route travels by the attractive Eden Valley villages, and Penrith offers independent shops, cafés, and a lively town centre to explore before catching an evening bus back to Carlisle.
