A Day Out in

South Lancashire by Bus

Catch the 61 or 68 service to Blackpool, where there's plenty to see and do. From the iconic Golden Mile, enjoy a walk along the prom and visit the Comedy Carpet, or explore all three piers packed with family fun and nostalgia. Thrill seekers can head to the Pleasure Beach, home to some of the UK's most famous rides.

If the weather turns dull, spend the day at the UK's largest indoor waterpark, the Sandcastle Waterpark. You can also take a trip up the famous Blackpool Tower for panoramic views or stay at ground level to enjoy the historic Tower Ballroom and the world famous Tower Circus.

Alternatively, catch the 111 or 109 service to Leyland, a town famous for its long history of vehicle manufacturing, a tradition that continues today. Visit the British Commercial Vehicle Museum, which showcases Leyland's rich automotive heritage, including vintage buses and lorries.

For outdoor time, head to Worden Park, home to a beautifully restored 1892 conservatory. Wander through the woodland, let the children enjoy the playground, try the crazy golf course, or take a ride on the miniature railway. There's something for everyone to enjoy.
