Our Passengers

Passenger	More information
Adult	Our standard ticket.
Young Children	Up to 4 children aged 4 and under can travel for free with a responsible passenger, however they can't use a seat if it's needed by another passenger.
5-21 Concession	All young people and children aged 5-21 living in Scotland can apply for a national entitlement card providing free bus travel. You can apply for a card via your school or local council and online at freebus.scot
Child	Child tickets are available if you're aged 15 or under and not carrying an NEC card. You may be asked to provide valid photo ID.
Student	You'll need to show a valid student card or digital ID with your photo each time you buy and use our student tickets.
Group	Our group DayRider ticket is valid for up to 5 people travelling together (adults and/or kids) after 9am on weekdays or anytime at the weekend.
Concession	If you're over 60 or have a disability, you could be eligible for free bus travel around Scotland via the National Entitlement Card. You can apply for a card via your local council or at freebus.scot

Don't forget your Pass or ID!

Valid ID is needed for student discount and you must show your free travel pass to use one of the concession schemes. If you've forgotten either, you may need to pay the full adult fare instead.

Carrying your ticket onboard

All customers need to have a valid ticket or pass for their journey. Customers who fail to show this when requested may be asked to pay a standard fare charge of £30 and may face prosecution.

Please ensure your mobile device has suitable battery for your journey if you use a mobile ticket. Many of our buses have USB charging facilities on board!

For more information on lost or stolen tickets and refunds and cancellations of tickets, please visit stagecoachbus.com or head to your account on the Stagecoach Bus App.

We accept ABC, Grasshopper, One-ticket and PlusBus multi-operator tickets on some of our services. Visit stagecoachbus.com for more info.
